Message from the Special Counsel

It is my pleasure to present the U.S. Office of Special Counsel's (OSC) Strategic Plan for Fiscal Years 2022-2026. This plan builds on our proven strategies for carrying out OSC's statutory mandate while being responsible stewards of our appropriated funds. The recently implemented streamlining of our internal processes and reorganization of our programmatic units have benefitted OSC, our stakeholders, and American taxpayers over the last several years. This strategic plan lays out a carefully considered roadmap for continued success.

Guided by our mission to safeguard the merit system and hold the government accountable, OSC is an independent federal agency that protects the rights of roughly 2.1 million federal employees, including service members' employment rights under the Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act (USERRA). OSC provides a safe channel for federal employees to make disclosures of agency wrongdoing and, importantly, protects them from retaliation once they speak up. Through enforcement of the Hatch Act, OSC is also charged with preventing partisan politics from compromising the integrity of the merit civil service system.

As a small federal investigative and civil prosecutorial agency with government-wide jurisdiction, OSC consistently provides outsized returns for the federal government and achieves exceptional results for complainants. We do this with an emphasis on old-style customer service and an intentional and determined focus on the strategies, goals, and metrics identified in our strategic plan. In short, we are clear about our purpose and our vision for achieving excellence in fulfilling it. Our results reflect that dedication to mission. In turn, we strengthen the federal merit system.

This new strategic plan continues OSC's efforts to achieve organizational excellence and to efficiently allocate our precious resources. Since the release of the previous plan, OSC has combined two units with overlapping responsibilities into one, so that a single attorney generally handles each prohibited personnel practice (PPP) case from the start of the investigation through closure of the case, allowing OSC to process PPP complaints more efficiently. In the new strategic plan, our goals are clear: to build on the efficiencies we have recently achieved, while maintaining an agile, well-functioning organization.

The COVID-19 pandemic has introduced historic challenges for all Americans. The federal workforce, including at OSC, is no different. Nonetheless, OSC has achieved unparalleled success in obtaining favorable outcomes for whistleblowers and other complainants. Our core values – Commitment; Excellence; Independence; Integrity; Vigilance – guide us in meeting these challenges. As we move forward, this new strategic plan sets our course. We are committed to fostering a model workplace with respect for employees and stakeholders and acting fairly, without bias, to honor and uphold the merit system.

With this new strategic plan, OSC is prepared to build on past successes and meet future challenges. Our dedicated staff is located nationwide and, because of the continued COVID-19 pandemic, currently comprises an almost completely remote workforce. This plan equips our staff with a long-term template for success in a challenging and dynamic environment. Together, we look forward to continuing to achieve excellent results for our stakeholders, whistleblowers, and the American people.

Introduction

The U.S. Office of Special Counsel vigorously enforces its mandates to protect federal employees, applicants, and former employees from various unlawful employment practices, including retaliation for whistleblowing, and to hold the government accountable by providing a safe and secure channel for whistleblower disclosures.

As an agency with a relatively modest budget and a critical mission, OSC has been strategic in effectively and efficiently addressing our workload. OSC has met these challenges, achieving a record number of positive results in recent years. In FY 2020, for example, OSC achieved 405 favorable outcomes for federal employees subjected to retaliation and other prohibited personnel practices (PPPs)—an agency record and roughly 32% higher than its average success rate in the previous five years. During the same time period, OSC’s work resulted in 61 substantiated instances of wrongdoing disclosed by whistleblowers, and the identification of millions of dollars of uncollected debts owed to the federal government. OSC also issued more than 1,400 Hatch Act advisory opinions and obtained favorable outcomes for several service members who brought claims under USERRA.

In addition, OSC has provided education and outreach to the federal community with the goal of preventing and deterring violations of civil-service laws. OSC has also published reports of its investigative findings (in redacted format) when doing so may serve an educational purpose and has filed amicus curiae briefs aimed at clarifying whistleblower protections. Equally important, OSC has improved communication with its federal stakeholders—both through its revamped website and enhanced use of social media.

Finally, OSC has worked with partners in Congress to modernize the laws it enforces, allowing OSC to be more effective in its role as a watchdog and guardian of employee rights. For example, in 2017, Congress passed the Dr. Chris Kirkpatrick Whistleblower Protection Act, which created a new PPP for the improper accessing of medical records and required agencies to notify OSC if an employee committed suicide after potentially being subjected to whistleblower retaliation. This law also required agencies to train their supervisors on how to handle complaints of whistleblower retaliation and mandated disciplinary action for supervisors who have violated certain provisions. That same year, Congress passed the OSC Reauthorization Act, which significantly clarified that agencies may not withhold information during OSC investigations by asserting common law privileges. The legislation also promoted greater efficiency and accountability within OSC, improved protections against retaliatory investigations and other forms of whistleblower retaliation, and required managers across the federal government to respond appropriately to disclosures of fraud, waste, and abuse.

While OSC’s recent achievements are significant, broad challenges remain and new ones continue to develop. By building on the successes already attained over the last five years, OSC stands ready to meet these challenges.

About OSC

Background

OSC is an independent federal investigative and prosecutorial agency. Its basic enforcement authorities come from several federal statutes: the Civil Service Reform Act (CSRA), as amended by the Whistleblower Protection Act (WPA), the Whistleblower Protection Enhancement Act (WPEA); the Hatch Act; and USERRA.

OSC's roots lie in the reform efforts of Gilded Age America. In 1883, Congress enacted the Pendleton Act creating the Civil Service Commission, which was intended to help ensure a stable, qualified federal workforce free from partisan political pressure. Nearly a century later, amidst well-publicized allegations of retaliation by agencies against employees who had blown the whistle on wasteful defense spending, and revelations of partisan political coercion in the federal government, Congress enacted sweeping reforms to the civil-service system in 1978. As a result, the CSRA replaced the Civil Service Commission with the Office of Personnel Management (OPM), the Federal Labor Relations Authority, and the Merit Systems Protection Board (MSPB), with OSC serving as the investigative and prosecutorial arm of the MSPB for the next decade.

In 1989, Congress passed the WPA, making OSC an independent agency within the federal executive branch. The WPA also strengthened protections against retaliation for employees who disclose government wrongdoing and enhanced OSC's ability to enforce those protections. Ensuing legislation, such as the WPEA and the OSC Reauthorization Act, significantly strengthened the agency's enforcement responsibilities by, for example, clarifying OSC's access to privileged agency materials during its investigations and permitting OSC to file amicus curiae briefs in whistleblower retaliation cases in the federal courts of appeals.

Mission and Responsibilities

OSC's mission is to safeguard employee rights and hold the government accountable. To achieve this mission and promote good government in the federal executive branch, OSC's obligations are, broadly speaking: (1) to uphold the merit system by protecting federal employees, applicants, and former employees from prohibited personnel practices, curbing prohibited political activities in the workplace and preserving the employment rights of federal employees who are service members; and (2) to provide a safe channel for federal employees, applicants, and former employees to disclose wrongdoing at their agencies. These two responsibilities work in tandem to maintain the integrity and fairness of the federal workplace and to make the government more accountable.

CSRA – Prohibited Personnel Practices

The “federal merit system” refers to laws and regulations that are designed to ensure that personnel decisions are made based on merit. PPPs are banned employment-related actions that violate the merit system through employment discrimination, retaliation, improper hiring practices or failure to adhere to the laws, rules, or regulations directly concerning merit system principles.

OSC has the authority to investigate and prosecute violations of the 14 PPPs in the CSRA, as amended.

CSRA – Whistleblower Disclosures

In addition to protecting whistleblowers from retaliation, the CSRA created OSC as a safe channel for most federal workers to disclose information about violations of laws, gross mismanagement or waste of funds, abuse of authority, substantial and specific dangers to public health and safety, and censorship related to scientific research. Through its oversight of government investigations of whistleblower disclosures, OSC regularly reins in waste, fraud, abuse, illegality, and threats to public health and safety that pose the risk of both catastrophic harm to the public, and large liability costs to the government.

Hatch Act

The Hatch Act, passed in 1939, restricts certain political activities of federal employees, as well as some District of Columbia, state, and local government employees who work in connection with federally funded programs. The law was intended to protect federal employees from political coercion, ensure federal employees are advanced based on merit rather than political affiliation, and make certain federal programs administered in a nonpartisan fashion. OSC has the authority to investigate and prosecute violations and issue advisory opinions under the Hatch Act.

Uniformed Services Employment and Reemployment Rights Act (USERRA)

USERRA, passed in 1994, protects military service members and veterans from employment discrimination because of their service, and allows them to regain their civilian jobs following a period of uniformed service. OSC has the authority to litigate and otherwise resolve USERRA claims by federal employees referred by the Department of Labor.

Organizational Structure

OSC is headquartered in Washington, D.C. It continues to have a significant staffing presence in: Dallas, Texas; Detroit, Michigan; and Oakland, California. The agency includes the following components:

- Immediate Office of Special Counsel (IOSC). The Special Counsel and IOSC are responsible for policymaking and overall management of OSC. This responsibility encompasses supervision of the agency's congressional liaison and public affairs activities.
- Case Review Division (CRD). This division serves as the initial intake point for all PPP and disclosure allegations. CRD screens all new allegations to ensure that PPPs and disclosures are directed to the appropriate OSC component. CRD also closes allegations that are duplicative, filed with MSPB, outside of OSC's jurisdiction, or untimely.

- Investigation and Prosecution Division (IPD). This division is comprised of the headquarters office and three virtual field offices, and is primarily responsible for investigating, prosecuting, and otherwise resolving PPPs. IPD determines whether the evidence is sufficient to establish that a violation has occurred and, if so, whether the matter warrants corrective action, disciplinary action, or both. If a meritorious case cannot be resolved informally between the agency and complainant, IPD may bring an enforcement action before the MSPB.
- Disclosure Unit (DU). This unit reviews whistleblower disclosures of government wrongdoing. DU may refer a whistleblower disclosure to the agency to investigate and report its findings to OSC. For referred whistleblower disclosures, DU reviews each agency report for sufficiency and reasonableness and then OSC sends the determination, the agency report, and any comments by the whistleblower to the President and the responsible congressional oversight committees.
- Retaliation and Disclosure Unit (RDU). This unit handles hybrid cases where a complainant alleges both whistleblower disclosures and retaliation. RDU performs the full range of action in these cases, including the referral of whistleblower disclosures to agencies and the investigation and prosecution of related retaliation claims, where appropriate.
- Hatch Act Unit (HAU). This unit investigates and resolves complaints of unlawful political activity under the Hatch Act and may seek corrective and disciplinary action informally as well as before the MSPB. HAU also provides advisory opinions under the Hatch Act.
- USERRA Unit. This unit reviews and resolves USERRA complaints by federal employees referred by the Department of Labor. The unit also may represent service members in USERRA appeals before the MSPB.
- Alternative Dispute Resolution (ADR) Unit. This unit supports OSC's other units by providing mediation and other forms of ADR services to resolve appropriate cases. Where the parties agree to mediation, the unit conducts mediation sessions seeking creative and effective resolutions.
- Diversity, Outreach, and Training Unit. This unit facilitates coordination with and assistance to agencies in meeting the statutory mandate of 5 U.S.C. § 2302(c), which requires that agencies inform their workforce about whistleblower rights and remedies. The unit also provides external education and outreach sessions regarding the laws that OSC enforces, as well as develops and implements internal Equal Employment Opportunity and skills-based training programs for OSC's staff.
- Office of General Counsel. This office provides legal advice regarding management, policy, and administrative matters, including ethics programs. This office also defends OSC's interests in litigation filed against the agency.

- Operations Division. This division manages OSC’s budget and financial operations, and meets the technical, analytical, records, and administrative needs of the agency. Component units include the Budget and Finance Office, the Human Capital Office, the Administrative Services Office, the Information Technology Office (ITO), and the Office of the Clerk. Functional areas under the Office of the Clerk include the Freedom of Information Act (FOIA), Privacy Act, Controlled Unclassified Information, and records management. Procurement operations as well as travel are included under the Budget and Finance Office. The Information Technology Office maintains the electronic case management system (eCMS) used to process OSC cases, store case-related documents, and generate reporting metrics. In addition, ITO is responsible for the maintenance and compliance of all modern technology platforms used by the agency.

Strategic Planning Process

Congress requires Executive Branch agencies to develop and post updated four-year strategic plans on their public websites on an overall timeline that aligns to presidential terms. The strategic planning process offers an opportunity for agencies to reflect on their statutory mission and mandates, reassess prior goals and objectives, and identify new goals and objectives that will enable agencies to fulfill their mission and vision. This process—and the resulting strategic plans—also serves to notify Congress and stakeholders of major factors that may affect agencies’ abilities to meet their statutory obligations.

In 2016 OSC undertook a comprehensive process to develop the agency’s FY 2017- FY 2022 Strategic plan. With input from employees, congressional oversight and appropriations committee parties, the Office of Management and Budget (OMB), and other stakeholders, the plan was completed. OSC feels the outcomes and results of the plan were successful by all measures - record results were achieved in all program areas during the intervening years, and metrics in the plan were met with an overall average of 82% success rate, with an increased success rate nearly every successive year. Thus, the plan successfully guided agency efforts and resources.

In 2021, OSC reviewed its programs and services and reassessed its strategic goals, objectives, strategies, and metrics. After making appropriate revisions and adjustments, OSC presented an updated strategic plan to OMB, staff from the agency’s congressional oversight and appropriations committees, and stakeholders. We believe this plan--more of a refinement than an overhaul--will build on the success of the previous plan. On _____, the Special Counsel approved OSC’s final strategic plan.

Mission, Vision, Strategic Goals, and Core Values

Mission: Safeguarding employee rights, holding the government accountable.

Vision: Fair and effective government inspiring public confidence.

Strategic Goals:

1. Protect and promote the integrity and fairness of the federal workplace.
2. Ensure government accountability.
3. Achieve organizational excellence.

OSC's Mission states: "Safeguarding Employee Rights, Holding the Government Accountable." Strategic Goals 1 and 2, which focus on the agency's substantive program areas, work closely together to achieve a more responsible and merit-based federal government. Strategic Goal 3, which focuses on OSC's efforts to achieve organizational excellence, encompasses the building blocks to make the agency a more agile, better-functioning organization. Collectively, all three Strategic Goals will help OSC to realize its Vision, which is "Fair and Effective Government Inspiring Public Confidence."

Core Values: Commitment: We are dedicated to seeking justice through the enforcement of laws that OSC is charged with prosecuting and to being a safe channel for whistleblowers.

Excellence: We foster a model workplace with respect for employees and stakeholders, and provide a clear, high-quality, and timely work product in our programs and services.

Independence: We conduct our work free from outside influence. We act fairly and without bias to honor the merit system.

Integrity: We adhere to the highest legal, professional, and ethical standards to earn and maintain the public's trust.

Vigilance: We aim for proactive and constant improvement of both our own processes and the merit system. We strive to identify innovative and effective ways to address and prevent government wrongdoing.

Strategic Goals, Objectives, Strategies, and Metrics

Strategic Goal #1 – Protect and promote the integrity and fairness of the federal workplace.

Objective #1: Fairly and promptly investigate and prosecute cases.

Objective #2: Obtain timely and effective relief in cases.

Each year, OSC receives thousands of complaints, particularly from federal employees alleging whistleblower retaliation. To effectively remedy wrongs and hold agencies accountable, OSC applies consistent standards of review and investigative procedure to each matter. Some cases will demand more time and resources than others and will require a variety of investigative strategies and techniques to resolve. Applying broadly uniform procedures, but handling each matter as the facts demand, will allow OSC to remain efficient, fair, and effective. OSC will continue to use ADR and other dispute resolution methods to increase case-processing efficiency and to better serve its stakeholders.

Strategies:

- Handle cases in a fair and unbiased manner.
- Maximize effective use of ADR and other resolution methods in cases.

Metrics:

PPP Enforcement

- Percent of complaints closed within 240 days.
- Number of complaints mediated.
- Number of complaints mediated resulting in settlement.
- Number of formal stays obtained.
- Number of informal stays obtained.
- Number of individual corrective actions obtained.
- Number of systemic corrective actions obtained.
- Number of disciplinary actions obtained.
- Number of cases filed with MSPB
- Number of total favorable actions obtained (i.e., formal stay, informal stay, individual corrective action, systemic corrective action, and disciplinary action).

Hatch Act Enforcement

- Percent of cases closed within 240 days.
- Number of cases filed with MSPB.
- Percent of successful prosecutions before MSPB
- Number of warning letters issued.
- Number of corrective actions obtained.
- Number of disciplinary actions obtained.

- Number of total favorable actions obtained (i.e., corrective action and disciplinary action).

USERRA Enforcement

- Percent of referrals closed within 60 days.
- Number of corrective actions obtained (formally and informally).

Objective #3: Enhance strategic use of enforcement authority.

As a small agency responsible for safeguarding the merit system in a broad sector of the federal community, OSC strives to maximize the impact of its enforcement actions and deter future violations. In addition to seeking corrective and disciplinary action for PPPs, Hatch Act violations, and USERRA complaints, OSC may issue PPP reports and provide technical assistance for policy and legislative changes affecting the laws it enforces. The WPEA also authorized OSC to file amicus curiae briefs in cases involving whistleblower rights and to intervene in cases before the MSPB. OSC will use these authorities to advance its mission of safeguarding employee rights by educating the federal community, working for systemic changes, and helping shape and clarify the law.

Strategies:

- Publish PPP reports that serve educational purposes, as appropriate.
- Furnish expert technical assistance to aid governmental bodies with formulating policy and precedent.

Metrics:

- Number of PPP reports published on website.
- Number of amicus curiae briefs and interventions filed.

Objective #4: Provide timely and quality Hatch Act advisory opinions and guidance.

OSC is in a unique position to provide Hatch Act advice to federal, District of Columbia, state, and local employees and officials, as well as the general public. It is important for OSC to provide consistent, well-reasoned opinions in a timely fashion so that individuals can make appropriate decisions about their political activities. OSC recognizes the importance of revising and updating Hatch Act regulations and will continue to pursue its efforts to partner with OPM, the agency responsible for promulgating the regulations, to achieve this goal.

Strategies:

- Provide timely and appropriate Hatch Act advice and information.

Metrics:

- Percent of informal telephonic advisory opinions issued within 3 days of inquiry.
- Percent of informal email advisory opinions issued within 5 days of inquiry.
- Percent of formal written advisory opinions issued within 60 days of inquiry.

Objective #5: Expand training and outreach efforts nationwide.

OSC is well-suited to safeguard employee rights by educating the federal community and others about PPPs, whistleblower disclosures, the Hatch Act, and USERRA through its training and outreach programs. Since 2002, OSC has had a formal program to ensure compliance with 5 U.S.C. § 2302(c), which requires federal agencies to inform employees about their rights and remedies under whistleblower protection and related laws. In 2014, the White House mandated that federal agencies become certified under section 2302(c). OSC also has longstanding training programs on the Hatch Act and USERRA, as well as resources available through its website. While many agencies in the Washington, D.C. area have received OSC training and certification, OSC will continue to expand its efforts nationwide to better reach agencies and components that may have less familiarity with the whistleblower protections and other laws that OSC enforces.

Strategies:

- Increase awareness of and provide expert technical assistance to agencies/components on, the 2302(c) Certification Program and other OSC-related training needs.
- Develop procedures to facilitate registration, certification, and recertification rates of agencies/components under the 2302(c) Certification Program.
- Continue to certify and recertify more agencies/components through the 2302(c) Certification Program.

Metrics:

- Number of agencies/components certified and recertified for the 2302(c) Certification Program.
- Average time for agencies/components to complete the certification after registration for the 2302(c) Certification Program.

Objective #6: Effectively and innovatively communicate with stakeholders and the public.

OSC understands the necessity of effectively communicating with stakeholders and the general public about its efforts to safeguard employee rights and hold the government accountable. By appropriately publicizing enforcement outcomes through traditional and non-traditional media, OSC can help to educate the federal workforce about their rights and responsibilities and deter future wrongdoing. OSC will use a wide variety of communication methods to disseminate timely, accurate information and will provide regular opportunities for input, feedback, and collaboration from stakeholders.

Strategies:

- Issue press releases on major activities and key developments.
- Increase use of digital platforms as appropriate (e.g., website, social media).
- Use available analytics to assess effectiveness of communications.

Metrics:

- Number of press releases issued.
- Types and frequency of digital platforms used to share information.
- Types and frequency of website views and activity on digital platforms.

Strategic Goal #2 – Ensure government accountability.

Objective #1: Provide employees with an effective, efficient, and safe channel to report government wrongdoing.

OSC promotes government accountability, integrity, and efficiency by providing a safe channel for federal employees to come forward with evidence of waste, fraud, abuse, law-breaking, threats to public health or safety, or censorship related to research, analysis, or technical information. To ensure that this safe channel remains effective in promoting change and accountability, OSC developed a dynamic, combined form for reporting government wrongdoing, whistleblower retaliation and other PPPs, and Hatch Act violations. The form is designed to be confidential, secure, and convenient for the user, and may be downloaded and completed privately. It may be submitted electronically and immediately routed and processed. The user need not establish an account. OSC will work vigorously to review and assess the whistleblower reporting experience to ensure that OSC can better ensure government accountability by providing a safe channel for whistleblowers and their disclosures.

Strategies:

- Continue to use improved, dynamic form to better receive and process whistleblower disclosures and other allegations, such as whistleblower retaliation.
- Ensure timely and appropriate referrals of whistleblower disclosures to agencies for investigation.

Metrics:

- Number of referrals of whistleblower disclosures to agencies for investigation.
- Percent of referrals of whistleblower disclosures to agencies for investigation made within 45 days.

Objective #2: Ensure agencies provide timely and appropriate outcomes for referred whistleblower disclosures.

OSC returns substantial sums to the federal government by pressing for appropriate action to remedy waste and fraud disclosed by whistleblowers. Through its oversight of agency reports on referred whistleblower disclosures, OSC uncovers individual and systemic violations of federal law and evaluates the reasonableness of agency responses, encourages cost savings occasioned by the identification and cessation of government waste, and resolves serious health and safety threats. A key objective is to improve the timeliness and outcomes of agency reports. OSC will also continue to improve communication with other agencies concerning their statutorily mandated reports, including their content and timeliness.

Strategies:

- Ensure effective agency investigations by engaging agencies when OSC refers the whistleblower disclosures.
- Maintain communications with agencies before, during, and after agencies' investigations of referred whistleblower disclosures, as appropriate.
- Monitor whistleblower disclosures and referrals to agencies to identify trends or systemic challenges.

Metrics:

- Number of favorable outcomes—both corrective and disciplinary actions—achieved through referrals of whistleblower disclosures.
- Number of days between date of receiving whistleblower’s comments on agency investigation report (or any update to report) and date of communication to President and Congress.

Strategic Goal #3 – Achieve organizational excellence.

Objective #1: Recruit, develop, and retain a highly talented, engaged, and diverse workforce.

To accomplish its mission with excellence, OSC must use targeted recruitment methods that attract talented employees who believe in the work of the agency. A diverse workforce from various backgrounds will help OSC tackle problems from different perspectives and find optimal solutions. OSC is committed to retaining this skilled and diverse workforce through work-life balance strategies, career and skills development, recognition of strong performance, and other initiatives that will keep employees engaged and equip them to achieve the mission.

Strategies:

- Maintain a current Human Capital Plan that includes effective recruitment, staffing, and retention strategies for attracting, developing, and keeping talent from diverse sources.
- Facilitate training and professional development opportunities to ensure that the agency remains agile and responsive to changing organizational needs.
- Support and evaluate various employee engagement efforts based on Federal Employee Viewpoint Survey results, including consistent communication, constructive mentorship, and effective recognition of staff performance.
- Continue to emphasize work/life balance and other related benefits.

Metrics:

- Develop and maintain up-to-date Human Capital Plan and reassess regularly.
- Develop Individual Development Plans in support of professional development across the workforce consistent with annual training budget allocation.

Objective #2: Improve the use of existing technology and deploy new Information Technology (IT) systems to enhance organizational operations.

OSC will be a good steward of taxpayer dollars through the strategic use of IT systems to help the agency accomplish its mission. OSC will regularly assess the needs of its stakeholders and employees, and in response will employ cutting-edge IT solutions to improve efficiency and the stakeholder experience. OSC will deploy mobile access to network programs in compliance with directives that move the government toward a virtual work environment, while ensuring continuity of operations in times of work interruption and providing greater flexibility to employees. OSC will also employ IT security solutions to safeguard its information systems with the purpose of protecting the privacy of employees and those seeking assistance from OSC.

Strategies:

- Engage with agency staff and Federal partners to assess and implement the technology requirements to support the agency mission and strategic goals.
- Implement data governance and management of OSC data.
- Recruit and retain highly skilled IT staff.
- Meet the Federal strategic goals as outlined in Cybersecurity Executive Order 14028 – Improving the Nation’s Cybersecurity.

- Continue modernizing OSC's legacy enterprise architecture with a focus on full cloud enterprise architecture.
- Maintain IT hardware using industry lifecycles to include endpoints (computer), network edge appliances, and core network infrastructure.

Metrics:

- Periodic assessment and reassessment of agency technology requirements.
- Deploy enhancements and reporting capabilities of the current electronic case management system, annually.
- Develop and deploy phased approach for adopting zero-trust network security framework.
- Develop and implement plan to reduce uncategorized data and labeling.
- Ensure that IT staffing remains at 5% of the agency's workforce.

Objective #3: Monitor, evaluate, and improve the efficiency and effectiveness of programs and processes.

While OSC is a small agency, it receives complaints from throughout the federal government, handles cases from all over the country, and derives its authority from several different federal statutes. OSC will regularly conduct informal evaluations of its programs and processes to ensure that it is using effective and efficient approaches for safeguarding employee rights and holding the government accountable. Evaluations will seek to identify best practices and areas of improvement. This vigilant effort of continual introspection and review will help OSC achieve greater efficiencies and customer service in the agency's programs and processes. In addition, OSC will give federal employees a meaningful opportunity to provide input into shaping its work through its annual customer satisfaction survey.

Strategies:

- Identify and implement best practices and address areas of improvement identified in informal evaluations of programs and processes.
- Continue to improve methods for determining customer satisfaction with programs and processes and evaluate data to improve efficiency and effectiveness.

Metrics:

- Hold monthly or regular meetings to evaluate programs and processes and implement any learned best practices.
- Continue to issue and review results of annual survey regarding customer satisfaction with programs and processes and assess potential changes to programs and processes based on customer feedback.

Factors Affecting Achievement of Strategic Plan

While OSC is committed to achieving its mission and vision, there are several internal and external factors that will likely affect the agency's ability to achieve the goals set forth in this Strategic Plan. The primary issues of concern revolve around budget uncertainty and significant technological challenges—amplified by the recent pandemic. For a small-sized agency with a substantial mandate to safeguard employee rights and hold myriad government entities accountable, these factors can present serious challenges to fulfilling OSC's important statutory obligations.

The agency has made difficult choices to ensure balance among its investigative and prosecutorial responsibilities with training and outreach efforts critical to preventing whistleblower retaliation and other unlawful practices. While caseloads fluctuated in FY 2020—largely due to pandemic-related operational changes at federal agencies—OSC expects a return to higher, pre-pandemic caseloads in future years. That being said, the pandemic did not affect OSC's Hatch Act work, which usually increases significantly during presidential-election years and did so in FY 2020.

Additionally, OSC has experienced an increased need for long-term improvements in technology, while grappling with limited funding. The remote working arrangements for OSC's employees required by the pandemic highlighted these challenges. OSC will be called upon to ensure that the technological environment in which it conducts its work is modern and secure. By proactively assessing the information security needs and the technological requirements of employees and stakeholders, OSC plans to improve efficiency, security, and the customer experience. Continuous assessment of information technology requisites against available resources will help ensure that OSC achieves organizational excellence despite these challenges.

In response to these challenges, OSC must carefully prioritize and allocate resources to remain efficient, fair, and effective in maintaining the high levels of success achieved in recent years. Accordingly, the agency implemented a reorganization to improve the timeliness and customer service experience in our case processing procedures. OSC is also being proactive in seeking early resolution of meritorious cases, as well as implementing innovative approaches to achieve efficiencies in cases involving both whistleblower disclosures and related retaliation claims. A better funded and more efficient OSC will result in greater stewardship of taxpayer dollars and more effective accountability throughout government.

As an independent agency, OSC must remain agile and focused on upholding the merit system fairly and without bias. In doing so, OSC will continue to emphasize education and outreach and highlight cases with significant educational value or that promote accountability. Through these efforts, OSC can improve federal government culture and remain a steady accountable and transparent presence capable of withstanding administration and leadership changes.

OSC's Strategic Plan contemplates confronting these challenges directly over the next few years to ensure its success. When OSC succeeds, good government and the general public are the ones who truly benefit.
