

ANNUAL REPORT
OF THE
U.S. OFFICE OF SPECIAL COUNSEL (OSC)
ON
FREEDOM OF INFORMATION ACT (FOIA) ACTIVITIES
FOR FISCAL YEAR (FY) 2008

I. BASIC INFORMATION REGARDING REPORT

Christopher Kurt
FOIA Officer
U.S. Office of Special Counsel
1730 M Street, NW
Suite 218
Washington, DC 20036
Ph. (202) 254-3600

This report can be accessed online at: <http://www.osc.gov/library.htm#foia>.

Paper copies of this report are available from OSC by writing to or calling the FOIA Officer.

II. MAKING A FOIA REQUEST

Send a letter to the FOIA Officer identifying as precisely as possible which documents or information to which you are seeking access. A request letter may be sent by U.S. Mail to the address above or faxed to (202) 653-5151.

Brief description of why some requests are not granted: OSC is an investigative and prosecutorial agency. Most requests are for records in agency case files, generally involving: (a) allegations from current or former Federal employees, or applicants for Federal employment, of prohibited personnel practices (including reprisal for whistleblowing); (b) whistleblower disclosures to OSC from current or former Federal employees, or applicants for Federal employment; and (c) allegations of prohibited political activity (i.e., Hatch Act violations) involving covered Federal, state, or local government employees. Most of these records consist of investigatory material, compiled for law enforcement purposes by or under the supervision of attorneys, and kept in a system of records subject to the Privacy Act (5 U.S.C. § 552a). OSC has exempted the system of records from access under the Privacy Act pursuant to § 552a(k) of the act. For that reason, covered records in the system are exempt from disclosure under the Privacy Act to first parties (that is, complainants or others in whose name a record is kept and retrieved), although limited information may be releasable to them under FOIA. Requests from persons other than complainants for case file information are usually denied under FOIA exemptions (b)(5) and/or (b)(7), because the information: (a) is privileged (either as attorney work product, or as pre-decisional material generated as part of a deliberative process); and/or (b) was compiled for a law enforcement purpose, and disclosure could reasonably be expected to interfere with enforcement proceedings, or result in an unwarranted invasion of the personal privacy of the individuals identified in the record.

III. DEFINITIONS AND EXEMPTIONS

Administrative Appeal – a request to a federal agency asking that it review at a higher administrative level a FOIA determination made by the agency at the initial request level.

Average Number – the number obtained by dividing the sum of a group of numbers by the quantity of numbers in the group. For example, of 3, 7, and 14, the average number is 8.

Backlog – the number of requests or administrative appeals that are pending at an agency at the end of the fiscal year that are beyond the statutory time period for a response.

Consultation – the procedure whereby the agency responding to a FOIA request first forwards a record to another agency for its review because that other agency has an interest in the document. Once the agency in receipt of the consultation finishes its review of the record, it responds back to the agency that forwarded it. That agency, in turn, will then respond to the FOIA requester.

Exemption 3 Statute – a federal statute that exempts information from disclosure and which the agency relies on to withhold information under subsection (b)(3) of the FOIA.

FOIA Request – a FOIA request is generally a request to a federal agency for access to records concerning another person (i.e., a “third-party” request), or concerning an organization, or a particular topic of interest. FOIA requests also include requests made by requesters seeking records concerning themselves (i.e., “first-party” requests) when those requesters are not subject to the Privacy Act, such as non-U.S. citizens. Moreover, because all first-party requesters should be afforded the benefit of both the access provisions of the FOIA as well as those of the Privacy Act, FOIA requests also include any first-party requests where an agency determines that it must search beyond its Privacy Act “systems of records” or where a Privacy Act exemption applies, and the agency looks to FOIA to afford the greatest possible access. All requests which require the agency to utilize the FOIA in responding to the requester are included in this Report.

Additionally, a FOIA request includes records referred to the agency for processing and direct response to the requester. It does not, however, include records for which the agency has received a consultation from another agency. (Consultations are reported separately in Section XII of this Report.)

Full Grant – an agency decision to disclose all records in full in response to a FOIA request.

Full Denial – an agency decision not to release any records in response to a FOIA request because the records are exempt in their entireties under one or more of the FOIA exemptions, or because of a procedural reason, such as when no records could be located.

Median Number – the middle, not average, number. For example, of 3, 7, and 14, the median number is 7.

Multi-Track Processing – a system in which simple requests requiring relatively minimal review are placed in one processing track and more voluminous and complex requests are placed in one or more other tracks. Requests granted expedited processing are placed in yet another track. Requests in each track are processed on a first in/first out basis.

Expedited Processing – an agency will process a FOIA request on an expedited basis when a requester satisfies the requirements for expedited processing as set forth in the statute and in agency regulations.

Simple Request – a FOIA request that an agency using multi-track processing places in its fastest (non-expedited) track based on the low volume and/or simplicity of the records requested. The FOIA determination for simple requests can be made immediately.

Complex Request – a FOIA request that an agency using multi-track processing places in a slower track based on the high volume and/or complexity of the records requested. For OSC, “Complex A” requests are the most complex, “Complex B” requests are less so.

Partial Grant/Partial Denial – in response to a FOIA request, an agency decision to disclose portions of the records and to withhold other portions that are exempt under the FOIA, or to otherwise deny a portion of the request for a procedural reason.

Pending Request or Pending Administrative Appeal – a request or administrative appeal for which an agency has not taken final action in all respects.

Perfected Request – a request for records which reasonably describes such records and is made in accordance with published rules stating the time, place, fees (if any) and procedures to be followed.

Processed Request or Processed Administrative Appeal – a request or administrative appeal for which an agency has taken final action in all respects.

Range in Number of Days – the lowest and highest number of days to process requests or administrative appeals.

Time Limits – the time period in the statute for an agency to respond to a FOIA request (ordinarily twenty working days from receipt of a perfected FOIA request).

Exemption 1: classified national defense and foreign relations information

Exemption 2: internal agency rules and practices

Exemption 3: information that is prohibited from disclosure by another federal law

Exemption 4: trade secrets and other confidential business information

Exemption 5: inter-agency or intra-agency communications that are protected by legal privileges

Exemption 6: information involving matters of personal privacy

Exemption 7: records or information compiled for law enforcement purposes, to the extent that the production of those records (A) could reasonably be expected to interfere with enforcement proceedings, (B) would deprive a person of a right to a fair trial or an impartial adjudication, (C) could reasonably be expected to constitute an unwarranted invasion of personal privacy, (D) could reasonably be expected to disclose the identity of a confidential source, (E) would disclose techniques and procedures for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions, or would disclose guidelines for law enforcement investigations or prosecutions, or (F) could reasonably be expected to endanger the life or physical safety of any individual

Exemption 8: information relating to the supervision of financial institutions

Exemption 9: geological information on wells

IV. EXEMPTION 3 STATUTES

A. Exemption 3 Statutes Relied Upon to Withhold Information

Statute	Type of Information Withheld	Case Citation	Number of Times Relied Upon Per Component	Total Number of Times Relied Upon by Agency

In FY 2008, OSC did not rely on any exemption 3 statutes.

V. FOIA REQUESTS

A. Received, Processed and Pending FOIA Requests

Number of Requests Pending As of Start of Fiscal Year	Number of Requests Received in Fiscal Year	Number of Requests Processed in Fiscal Year	Number of Requests Pending As of End of Fiscal Year
16*	121	130	6

* Last year OSC reported 15 pending requests at the end of FY 2007. Since then a request was discovered to have been received during FY 2007 but was added during FY 2008.

 One request was contested in federal district court and was retroactively converted to an appeal. Therefore, it is not counted with pending requests.

F. Other FOIA Activities

Toward the end of FY 2008, OSC endeavored to reduce its backlog of initial requests by assembling a temporary special project unit, comprised of four staff members. This collaborative effort resulted in a reduction of our initial request backlog from 21 to 6. Backlogged appeals were reduced from 17 to 13 in the same period.
